EDUCATION | "A ROYAL CHRISTMAS AT PENA PALACE"

This activity is framed by the reconstitution of the Christmas Tree of King Fernando II. As has been the case in recent years, the "Pinheiro da Pena" will be on display in the Main Hall of the National Palace of Pena, from November 27th, the first Sunday of Advent, until Epiphany, January 6th. At the time he reigned, with D. Maria II, Christmas at the Palácio das Necessidades was celebrated around a pine tree brought purposely from Parque da Pena, in Sintra. The memory of those nights was left by D. Fernando II through two engravings of his authorship and it was these engravings, accompanied by a wide historical investigation, that allowed the reconstitution to be carried out with rigor. This installation reminds us of what Christmas was like in other times and includes scale reproductions of the decoration – fruits, candles and animal figures – and toys.

When: December 17, at 15.00 / Price: 12€ (Youth (<4 years) - Free / Duration: 1h.
